Note: Chapter Grp 11 as it existed on August 31, 1978 was repealed and a new chapter Grp 11 was created effective September 1, 1978.

Grp 11.01 Employee contributions. (1) Changes in employe contributions relating to an increase or decrease in the amount of insurance shall be made commencing with any pay covering services performed in February of each year which deduction represents payment of the March premium.

(2) Employe contributions for a partial month of coverage are subject to the following conditions:

(a) If coverage becomes effective on the 1st through the 15th day of the month, a full month's contribution is required.

(b) If coverage becomes effective on the 16th through the last day of the month, no contribution for such part month is required.

(c) When coverage ceases because of termination of employment, a full month's premium is required for any month or portion of a month for which earnings are paid.

(3) Whenever deductions cannot be made in advance, an additional amount shall be deducted on a succeeding payroll to establish contributions on a current basis.

(4) Employe contributions shall be made until age 70 is attained unless employment is terminated after attaining age 65 but prior to age 70 in which event contributions shall cease at the end of the month in which employment terminates.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1978, No. 272, eff. 9-1-78; cr. (4), Register, June, 1980, No. 294, eff. 7-1-80.

Grp 11.02 Adjustments. Whenever the proper employe contribution is not made by any insured employe in any month, any deficiency shall be deducted by the employer upon the ensuing payroll after discovery thereof except as provided by s. 40.12 (3), Stats. If an excess deduction of employe contributions has been made for any employe such shall be adjusted by reducing subsequent contributions for that employe, or if there be no later payroll payment then a refund check shall be issued to the person making the overpayment.
